- 1. The United States Attorney's Office has developed an early disposition program for immigration cases, authorized by the Attorney General pursuant to the PROTECT ACT of 2003, Pub. L. 108-21.
- 2. The early disposition program for immigration cases is designed to: (1) reduce the number of hearings required in order to dispose of a criminal case; (2) avoid having more cases added to the court's trial calendar, while still discharging the government's duty to prosecute federal crimes; (3) reduce the amount of time between complaint and sentencing; and (4) avoid adding significant time to the grand jury calendar to seek indictments in immigration cases, which in turn reduces court costs.
- 3. The government has made a plea offer in this case that requires defendant to waive specific rights and hearings in exchange for "fast-track" downward departure under USSG § 5K3.1. This offer will be withdrawn if it is not timely accepted before this matter is indicted and before a preliminary hearing is held. Typically under the Fast Track, the initial request is to continue the preliminary hearing for 90 days. However, the Court just recently terminated FPD's representation and appointed new counsel, Mr. Yanez, for the defendant, on or about December 17, 2020. ECF No. 24. Mr. Yanez, Esq. and the defendant have advised undersigned government counsel that they would like more time to consider whether to accept the government's Fast Track offer and they agree to move the preliminary hearing out to on or after February 5, 2021.
- 4. Under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 5.1(c), the Court "must hold the preliminary hearing within a reasonAbel time, but no later than 14 days after the initial appearance if the defendant is in custody . . . . "

  - 10. The parties agree to the extension of that deadline.
- 11. This extension supports the public interest in the prompt disposition of criminal cases by permitting defendant to consider entering into a plea agreement under the United States Attorney's Office's fast-track program for § 1326 defendants.
- 12. Accordingly, the additional time requested by this stipulation is allowed under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 5.1(d).
